

I am requesting that you leave the Indiana privacy protections laws alone. They keep the random calls to a minimum and will be jeopardized if the new national law pre-empts them.